We, the members of the Alumni Committee on Racial and Ethnic Diversity at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill support the Chancellor, the office of Diversity and Inclusion and other campus leaders who have condemned the continued acts of violence against Black people. Like our University leadership, we join those calling for transparency and accountability.

While admitting that our own university has a tainted history, we welcome the voices of our students, staff, and alumni in reflecting on current and past practices in order to develop a safe, respectful, welcoming, and kind community of learning that recognizes that much is still left to do.

The Alumni Committee on Racial and Ethnic Diversity is dedicated to serving Carolina’s multi-cultural communities by engaging diverse alumni in the life of the University and forging deeper and lasting relationships between UNC and its diverse constituents.

We celebrate the value that diversity brings to Carolina and we respect and support those working to bring healing, equity and justice for all Americans.

In unity,
